About me:

Charlie was nervous when I first took him home from the rescue, but after becoming comfortable in my house he warmed right up. He is one of the sweetest and most loyal dogs I've ever met. He follows me around the house like a shadow. He loves playing fetch and enjoys going on walk and runs. Charlie is a quick learner. He knows how to sit, shake, stay, come, and he is house broke.

If your foster pet could talk, what would they want their new owners to know?

Charlie would say that he needs a family that will let him get comfortable around everyone at first. He would say once that happens, you'll gain the most loyal family member you could ever hope for. He would also say that he is VERY motivated by bites of cheese sticks.

Favorite memory with your foster pet:

I loved having Charlie as a foster pet. My favorite day was the third day with Charlie, he really opened up and started to trust me. He started following me everywhere around the house, and wanted to be wherever I was. He'll make someone a great pup!
